ONE NEWS PAGE LAUNCHES SUPER BOWL LII COVERAGE

World news and video portal One News Page this week announces that it has launched a section of its services dedicated to the forthcoming Super Bowl LII, set to take place on February 4th, 2018. As one of the most important dates on the US sporting calendar, the news portal will be collecting video, news and viral content relating to the annual National Football League (NFL) championship game – allowing readers to learn more about what to expect in a few days' time. There's also set to be plenty of content, facts, figures and punditry to dive into in the days leading up to the 52nd contest.

This year, the Philadelphia Eagles will take on the New England Patriots in a bid to claim the hallowed trophy – with the Patriots currently reported to be the favourites to clinch the title. Taking place at the US Bank Stadium in Minneapolis, Super Bowl LII is set to thrill more than 70,000 spectators as well as more than 100 million TV viewers in the U.S. and a further 50 million viewers internationally. This year's halftime show will be headlined by Justin Timberlake, with Pink performing the national anthem of the United States and Leslie Odom Jr. singing "America the Beautiful".

"Super Bowl LII is set to be the biggest yet and it's only right that we offer it plenty of dedicated coverage," advises One News Page CEO Dr Marc Pinter-Krainer. "NFL fans will be able to click onto our Super Bowl section and keep up to date on all the news and predictions as and when they arrive – and our regular readers can keep abreast of the latest Super Bowl media coverage and video reports, too."

Access to the Super Bowl section on One News Page is accessible free of charge at the following URL: <https://www.onenewspage.com/s/superbowl>
